

There is nothing so great as the Eucharist. If God had something more precious, He would have given it to us.

10th Sunday in Ordinary Time

8th | 9th June 2024

1st Reading: Genesis 3: 9-15
Psalm 129 With the Lord there is mercy and fullness of redemption.
2nd Reading: 2 Corinthians 4: 13-5:1
Gospel: Mark 3: 20 - 35

A kingdom divided against itself cannot stand

Jesus went home with his disciples, and such a crowd collected that they could not even have a meal. When his relatives heard of this, they set out to take charge of him, convinced he was out of his mind.

The scribes who had come down from Jerusalem were saying, 'Beelzebul is in him' and, 'It is through the prince of devils that he casts devils out.' So he called them to him and spoke to them in parables, 'How can Satan cast out Satan? If a kingdom is divided against itself, that kingdom cannot last. And if a household is divided against itself, that household can never stand. Now if Satan has rebelled against himself and is divided, he cannot stand either – it is the end of him. But no one can make his way into a strong man's house and burgle his property unless he has tied up the strong man first. Only then can he burgle his house.

'I tell you solemnly, all men's sins will be forgiven, and all their blasphemies; but let anyone blaspheme against the Holy Spirit and he will never have forgiveness: he is guilty of an eternal sin.' This was because they were saying, 'An unclean spirit is in him.'

His mother and brothers now arrived and, standing outside, sent in a message asking for him. A crowd was sitting round him at the time the message was passed to him, 'Your mother and brothers and sisters are outside asking for you.' He replied, 'Who are my mother and my brothers?' And looking round at those sitting in a circle about him, he said, 'Here are my mother and my brothers. Anyone who does the will of God, that person is my brother and sister and mother.'

THE FAMILY OF JESUS.

Our first parents, Adam and Eve, hid from God after they had sinned. God, however, did not abandon them but sought them out and showed them mercy. Though they had to accept the consequences of their action, God promised that ultimately the forces of evil will be overcome. In Christ, God continues to seek us out and offer us forgiveness. If we accept forgiveness, and resolve to follow God's will, we will always be welcomed back into the family of God.

PROPERTY MAINTENANCE. Thank you Mamele for improving the ground at the back of the presbytery. Most of the time, if there is heavy rain, a surge of water from the neighbouring houses quickly fills up that area of the property. The drainage (manhole) sometimes cannot cope with the volume of the water that flows in it. Mamele offers his help to improve the landscape, to assist the flow of water and to prevent flooding.
