

There is nothing so great as the Eucharist. If God had something more precious, He would have given it to us.

14th Sunday in Ordinary Time

6th | 7th July 2024

1st Reading: Ezekiel 2:2-5
 Psalm 122 Our eyes are fixed on the Lord, pleading for his mercy
 2nd Reading: 2 Corinthians 8:7,9,13-15
 Gospel: Mark 6:1-6

'A prophet is only despised in his own country'

Jesus went to his home town and his disciples accompanied him. With the coming of the sabbath he began teaching in the synagogue and most of them were astonished when they heard him. They said, 'Where did the man get all this? What is this wisdom that has been granted him, and these miracles that are worked through him? This is the carpenter, surely, the son of Mary, the brother of James and Joset and Jude and Simon? His sisters, too, are they not here with us?' And they would not accept him. And Jesus said to them, 'A prophet is only despised in his own country, among his own relations and in his own house'; and he could work no miracle there, though he cured a few sick people by laying his hands on them. He was amazed at their lack of faith.

See you all tonight!

A prophet is only despised in their own country among their own relations.

Does familiarity mean I fail to see the face of God in; members of my family, my colleagues, those about me?

THEY WOULD NOT ACCEPT HIM. The Word of God is often proclaimed by those whom the world considers insignificant. The prophet Ezekiel enjoyed no particular status among the exiles in Babylon. St Paul battles in human weakness throughout his life. Jesus came from lowly Nazareth. But through each of them the word of God was proclaimed with power. May prejudice never close our ears from hearing the truth.
