Year C

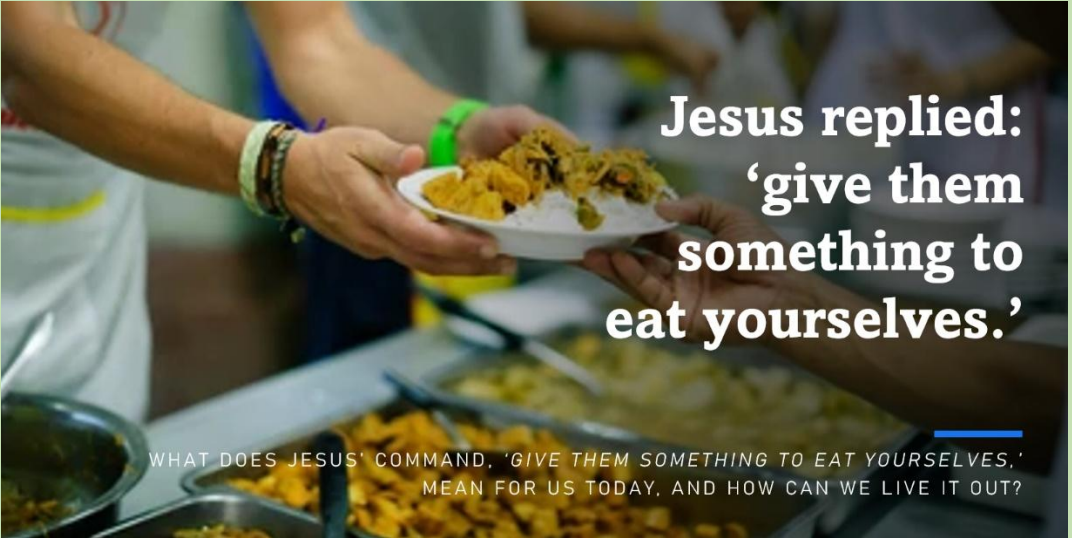

21st | 22nd June 2025

1st Reading: Genesis 14: 18-20
Psalm 109 You are a priest for ever, in the line of Melchizedek.
2nd Reading: Corinthians 11: 23-26
Gospel: Luke 9: 11-17

They all ate and were filled.

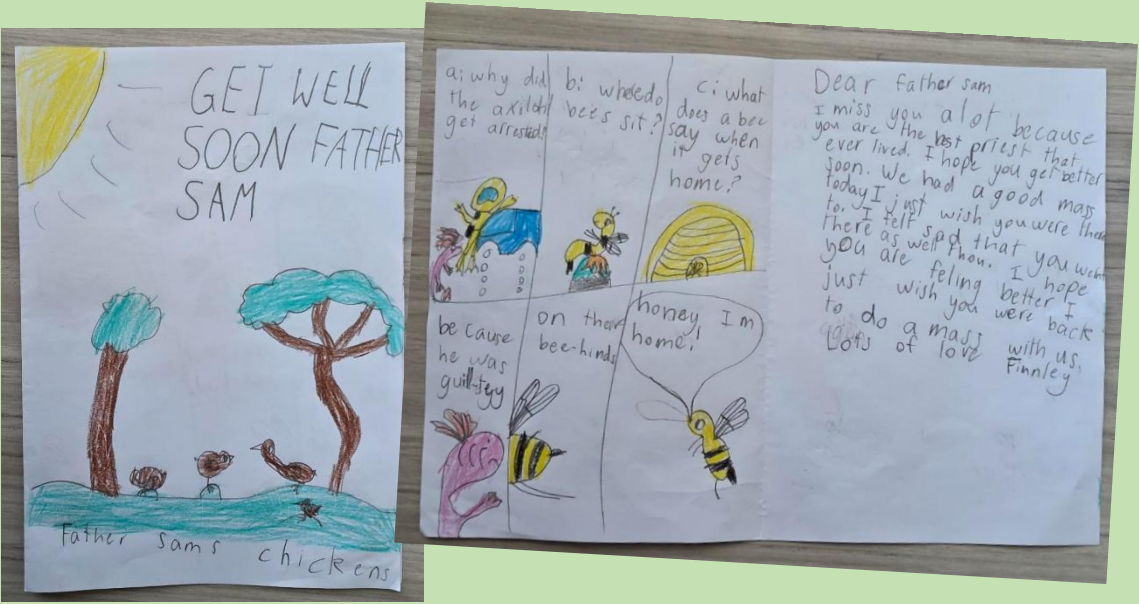

Jesus made the crowds welcome and talked to them about the kingdom of God; and he cured those who were in need of healing.

It was late afternoon when the Twelve came to him and said, ‘Send the people away, and they can go to the villages and farms round about to find lodging and food; for we are in a lonely place here.’ He replied, ‘Give them something to eat yourselves.’ But they said, ‘We have no more than five loaves and two fish, unless we are to go ourselves and buy food for all these people.’ For there were about five thousand men. But he said to his disciples, ‘Get them to sit down in parties of about fifty.’ They did so and made them all sit down. Then he took the five loaves and the two fish, raised his eyes to heaven, and said the blessing over them; then he broke them and handed them to his disciples to distribute among the crowd. They all ate as much as they wanted, and when the scraps remaining were collected they filled twelve baskets.

FOOD FOR THE MULTITUDES. After feeding the crowds with the loaves and fishes blessed by Jesus, his disciples gathered twelve baskets of leftovers. Jesus, the generous giver, always provides too much, a sign that his gifts are never meant to be hoarded but to be shared with others. Seeing the poor and hungry of our world. he says to Us what he said to his disciples, "give them something to eat yourselves' Nourished by his body and blood in the Eucharist, let us go out and generously share our gifts with others.

I want to sincerely thank you for your prayers, kind thoughts, and support during my surgery and recovery. Your care has meant so much to me. I'm writing to share a quick update: I am recovering, though slowly, and my doctors and nurses have advised me to avoid any strain to ensure a full and proper recovery. I kindly ask for your continued prayers as I take things one day at a time. With gratitude – Fr Sam

The faith we plant in our children is often unseen as it grows—but we trust in God to bring it to fruition.

We would like to express our heartfelt thanks to our dedicated Sacramental Team, who have tirelessly accompanied our children on their journey through the Sacraments of Initiation in the Catholic Church.

These three sacraments—First Reconciliation, Confirmation, and First Holy Communion—are all deeply rooted in the grace of Baptism. Through your commitment and loving service, you have been true instruments of God, helping to nurture and strengthen the faith of our young ones.

We pray that the seeds of faith planted today will grow strong, and that our children will continue to live out their Christian mission with courage, love, and joy throughout their lives.
